1. Information for participants

1.1. “International Competition of Children's Art in Honor of Nadya Rusheva” (further referred as “the competition”) is hosted by the art department of the State Autonomic Institution and Educational Center № 548 Tsaritsyno; and supervised by Russian Academy of Arts.

1.2 The aims of the competition:

- Search for and support the art-gifted children;
- Search for promising specialists and support them in their undertakings;
- Provide new opportunities for art teachers and their students to exhibit their art;
- Promote different types of visual art;
- Familiarize public with the artworks of best participants;
- Integrate with a global art community on the international level.

The participants’ works are evaluated by the professional art jury under the leadership of Zurab Tsereteli – the president of Russian Academy of Arts and the People’s Artist of the Russian Federation (the country’s most prestigious art honorary title).

2. Competition's rules and regulations

2.1 We invite to participate the students (of age between 5 and 18-year-old) of ANY educational organizations (not necessarily art schools, although students of those are also invited and strongly encouraged to take part). Any grades or educational levels are welcome.
